

TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION
Supporting Businesses and Protecting Texans

June 2024

Texas Peace Officers,

The Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission (TABC) has started the hiring process for Probationary Agent. Open positions are available statewide.

TABC investigates offenses related to the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Code, the Texas Penal Code, and other applicable statutes, to ensure public safety at licensed and permitted locations. TABC also coordinates undercover operations to eliminate organized crime and conducts complex, human trafficking investigations throughout the State of Texas.

Minimum Job Qualifications:

- Must be at least 21 years of age;
- Must have a valid Texas driver license;
- Must have graduated from high school or its equivalent;
- Must be certified as a Texas peace officer by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement (TCOLE).

In addition to the above requirements, applicants must qualify by meeting additional options listed on the TABC website. Qualified candidates must pass the physical readiness test and complete the written exam. The next step includes an interview and pre-employment background check, which includes but is not limited to comprehensive background investigation, criminal history, driving record, and credit checks.

All applicants must fill out the State of Texas application in its entirety. For additional information regarding this job opportunity, visit the TABC web page at <https://www.tabc.texas.gov/about-us/careers/job-openings/>
